Executive Declaration
Rescission of Prior Declaration

WHEREAS, John L. Cooper, designee of the Governor of the State of South Dakota, has heretofore declared in May 2001 by Executive Declaration the following pursuant to SDCL 42-8-1.2:

> In order to protect the public health and safety of persons and property adjacent to Lake Poinsett during this emergency situation and high water conditions, no person may operate a boat on any portion of Lake Poinsett within 300 feet of the shoreline, except under emergency situations, at a speed causing a wake or wave action until the water level at Lake Poinsett has subsided and has remained at an elevation of 1,654 feet mean sea level or less for three (3) consecutive days. This prohibition shall be in full force and effect from this date forward until removed by a subsequent declaration by the Office of the Governor, or by the undersigned designee, who has also been designated and authorized to rescind this Order; and

WHEREAS, John L. Cooper has determined that the water level at Lake Poinsett has subsided and has remained at an elevation of 1,654 feet mean sea level or less for at least three (3) consecutive days from date of this Rescission which high water condition had existed at the time of issuance of the prior Declaration and no longer exists and that the prior Executive Declaration should be rescinded.

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY DECLARED and ORDERED, that the prior Executive Declaration prohibiting persons from operating a boat on any portion of Lake Poinsett within 300 feet of the shoreline, except under emergency situations, at a speed causing a wake or wave action is hereby rescinded effective at 1:00 PM on the 19th day of July, 2001.

IT IS FURTHER DECLARED and ORDERED, that the Department of Game, Fish and Parks shall immediately provide notice of the rescission of the prohibitions and restrictions previously contained in the Executive Declaration.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand in Pierre, the Capitol City, this 19th Day of July in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and One.

John L. Cooper, GFP Secretary
Designee of the Governor
